Dear Tom:

Many thanks for your note of June 1 and the clipping on the learned citizen of Oceanside.

If Mr. Wiley gets the Bermuda carriage bell he spoke of, the din may cause his fellow townspeople to wish he had never heard of this outfit.

Faithfully,

SIGNED

Oceanside Man Takes Radio Quiz
For $1,485 Prize

Charles E. Wiley of 4747 South Pacific, Oceanside, called $1,485 last week "just by knowing that Allen W. Dulles is the head of the government's Central Intelligence Agency."

Wiley, a free-lance writer, said he was working on an article about Ti-juana when he received a telephone call from the "Telecast," radio quiz show heard locally over Station KHJ.

When asked what he plans to do with the money, he said the only thing he could think of that he wants right now is a Bermuda carriage bell for his car.

Dear Allen:

This should be evidence to you of my contention that people of Oceanside are among the best informed in the country.

Sincerely,

Tom
